Fact Sheet

The Richard and Rebecca Sappington Scholarship of $1,000.00 will be awarded through The Order of the First Families of Maryland (FFM) Sappington Scholarship Committee to an upper level college student or a graduate student for a project in Pre-1776 Maryland Colonial history.

All applicants must be citizens of the United States and must currently be participating in a pre-1776 Maryland Colonial history project.

Only applications completed correctly and submitted in one package will be considered. Incorrect applications are discarded and no records returned. Essays may be used with the author's permission for inclusion in the First Families of Maryland Newsletter. Scholarships are awarded regardless of race, religion, sex, national origin, or disability. Personal photographs must not be submitted.

Only winners are notified by the Scholarship Committee following an approval of a ruling by the Scholarship Committee of the Order of the First Families of Maryland.

A one-time $1,000.00 Scholarship will be awarded. Awards will be based on academic excellence and commitment to a project in the field of Pre-1776 Maryland Colonial history. No affiliation with the Order of The First Families of Maryland is necessary unless specified.

The Scholarship Chairman must receive all applications by the deadline of the first day of May in the scholarship year. The award will be announced by postal mail no later than 1 of June of the scholarship year.
